Alex Ruck Keene is a barrister at 39 Essex Chambers. Alex has been recommended as a leading expert in the field of mental capacity law for several years, appearing in cases involving the Mental Capacity Act 2005 at all levels up to and including the Supreme Court. He also writes extensively about mental capacity law and policy, and has contributed to works including The International Protection of Adults (2015, Oxford University Press), Jordan's annual Court of Protection Practice and the fourth edition of Assessment of Mental Capacity (Law Society/BMA 2015). He is an Honorary Research Lecturer at the University of Manchester and a Wellcome Trust Research Fellow at King's College London. He has sat on both the ad hoc committees convened to review the Court of Protection Rules 2007, is a member of the Mental Health and Disability Committees of the Law Societies of both England & Wales and Scotland, and the creator of the website www.mentalcapacitylawandpolicylaw.org.uk. In addition to editing this book, Alex wrote chapters 10, 11 (to which Sophy also contributed), 12, 14, 15, 17, 18, 19 and 22–26 (Sophy contributing to chapter 25).

Kate Edwards is an associate solicitor and professional property and affairs deputy with the Court of Protection team at Slater and Gordon Lawyers. She is a member of STEP (Society of Trusts & Estates Practitioners) and the founder of the Court of Protection Practitioners Association (CoPPA). Kate wrote chapters 7, 8 and 20 and co-wrote, with Sophy, chapter 16.

Professor Anselm Eldergill is a district judge in the Court of Protection and a visiting professor at University College London. Before becoming a judge he was a practising legal aid solicitor specialising in mental health law for over 25 years, and then led the mental health team at Eversheds. He was President of the Mental Health Lawyers Association and of the Institute of Mental Health Act Practitioners, and ranked 1 in Chambers Directory. He is an Alexander Maxwell Scholar and the author of Mental Health Review Tribunals: Law and Procedure (Sweet & Maxwell 1997) and articles for journals such as the Princeton University Law Journal, Journal of Forensic Psychiatry and The Guardian. He was chairman of the Mental Health Act Commission's Law and Ethics Committee. Anselm wrote chapters 3–5.

Sophy Miles is a barrister at Doughty Street Chambers. She qualified as a solicitor in 1989 and was a founding partner at Miles and Partners LLP where she led the mental health and capacity team for 16 years. Sophy regularly appears in the Court of Protection and has been involved in significant cases under the inherent jurisdiction including JE v DE and others and Hillingdon v Neary. She is a fee-paid judge of the First-tier Tribunal (Mental Health). Sophy writes and trains on mental health and mental capacity issues and writes the regular Court of Protection updates in Legal Action. She is co-author of LAG's Mental Health Tribunal Handbook. She is a member of the Law Society's Mental Health and Disability Committee. She is an accredited mediator (Regent's University London). Sophy wrote chapters 6, 9, 13 and 21, co-wrote (with Kate) chapters 16, and contributed to chapters 11 and 25.
