

We are looking for a Paralegal to provide casework and administrative support in our London Bridge office. A minimum commitment of 12 months is required, but we would hope the position would be for longer. Although the position does not guarantee a training contract, we do recruit trainees from our paralegal staff.

Salary: £20,000 - £23,000 pa

Deighton Pierce Glynn is a highly regarded firm of solicitors specialising in a number of niche areas of civil litigation in which it has a significant national and international profile.

We are committed to promoting equality of opportunity. We think that by doing this, we can provide the best possible service to our clients. We positively encourages applications from suitably qualified and eligible candidates regardless of sex, race, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, religion or belief, marital status, or pregnancy and maternity.

For full details and application form visit our website: <http://www.dpglaw.co.uk/paralegal-role/>

Closing Date: 8am Friday 8 September